Dr. Lori's antique appraisals comedy tour stops in Grand Island, NE

12th straight year for tour, Dr. Lori to appear Aug 30-Sept 1 at State Fair

Bring your antiques for a free appraisal to part antiques appraiser, part standup comedian Dr. Lori as seen on Lifetime Television, Comedy Central's "The Daily Show with Jon Stewart", and NBC's "The Tonight Show". Have you ever dreamed about paying for your next family vacation or big flat screen TV with your spouse's antique junk? Do you know someone who buys antiques and you think that stuff is just plain ugly cluttering up the house and you want to know how to sell it all?

Drag your troubled friends with their stuff to awarding-winning TV personality and TV host, Ph.D. antiques appraiser, and nationally syndicated columnist Dr. Lori for a much needed antiques intervention. Enjoy the Nebraska State Fair and laugh with your friend or spouse about their "collection of clutter". Yes, Dr. Lori will review your antiques or photos of them even if they aren't funny!

Attend Dr. Lori's antiques appraisals comedy sessions at the Nebraska State Fair starting on August 30 through September 1 located at Fonner Park in Grand Island, NE. Free antiques appraisals will be available as part of Dr. Lori's show. Arrive early since appraisals are limited.

As seen on Comedy Central's "The Daily Show with Jon Stewart", NBC's "The Tonight Show", and entertaining guests onboard Celebrity Cruises' cruise ships around the world, nationally known and funny antiques appraiser, syndicated columnist and award winning TV personality and talk show host Dr. Lori will pull no punches evaluating your friends' or spouse's flea market addictions and sentimental family objects as she makes you all laugh about your junk.

Dr. Lori says, "You'll laugh out loud while learning about your antiques, your friends and even your spouse at my event! I'm not an antique dealer, reseller, or affiliated with any auction house and my evaluations are straightforward and honest. I will not hesitate to tell your friend or spouse that their compulsion for buying and saving items is a sickness, just adding to the clutter. Everyone is invited to attend, with or without an antique, and I'll even tell you how appraisers on the Antiques Roadshow fail to meet professional museum standards."
