

2022 Nebraska State Fair – Brunks' Lot Assistant

Position Description

The Brunks' Lot Assistant will be responsible for organizing and parking trailers as they arrive and assisting with flow as they leave. This position will report to the Livestock & Equine Manager at the Nebraska State Fair Office in Grand Island, Nebraska.

A successful candidate will be a person that can positively communicate with people in a fast-paced environment. They will have excellent oral communication skills. The ability to handle conflict is a must. They must have a welcoming demeanor. The applicant will be able to follow a plan with minimal supervision.

Time Period: total of 11 days August 26th-September 5th

- The position will be expected to work a set schedule during the duration of the Nebraska State Fair, which will include weekends and potentially early mornings and/or late nights.

Responsibilities:

- Communicate with security and load-in/load-out personnel to facilitate efficient trailer flow
- Provide directions to exhibitors where to park trailers
- Assist Livestock & Equine Assistant with placing springboard signage
- Assist with policing of pedestrians to maintain safety of everyone
- Additional duties as determined by supervisor.

Requirements:

- Be able to work outside for long periods of time
- Have general livestock knowledge
- Able to run a radio
- Be able to lift 50 pounds

Please send an email to akelley@statefair.org or call 308-384-0624 to discuss position.