

OPEN CLASS LIVESTOCK ONLINE ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

To get started click on the Open Class Livestock Entry link on the website (<https://www.statefair.org/competitions/livestock-exhibitors>)

1. Register

Even if you have showed at the Nebraska State Fair in the past you will need to register as a new exhibitor. You will put the first name and last name of the exhibitor. For those wanting to enter as a ranch, farm or partnership use the option for a Team or Company. Whatever you put here is what we will use as the exhibitor's name for the show. This will also be who the premium check is made out to. Also, please be sure to use an address you can receive mail at.

Important note – if you are wanting to submit entries for multiple people and pay once use the Quick Group option.

You will be given the option of putting a stall request. Many of the species will ask further questions to assist with stalling when you are inputting entries. Open class swine and open class poultry do not do stall requests. The other superintendents will make the best attempt to meet these requests.

Please be sure to confirm your contact information.

2. Entries

First you must select the appropriate Department followed by Division then the Class. More specific information on each Division and Class can be found in each respective Department's entry book.

Each Department requests different information on entries. Items with an asterisk must be completed. For Open Class Beef, Beef Stalling Preferences will help with stalling exhibitors also exhibiting in 4-H and/or FFA. Open Class Swine asks exhibitors if this same animal is being shown in any other swine shows during the Nebraska State Fair.
