Nebraska State Fair Volunteer Newsletter

Volunteer Highlight Brenda Christensen

- How many years have you been a NSF volunteer?
 - This will be second year volunteering.
- What is your favorite volunteer job?
 - I love any volunteer job as long as I get to meet & great people.
- Why do you volunteer?
 - Since I'm retired it's a great way to get out into the community, socialize and help out the State Fair.
- What is the best fair food?
 - Cactus Jacks! Anything they have there is great!
- What are you most excited to see at this years fair?
 - I am most excited to see all the new improvements that have been made, the animals & Three Dog Night!

What's New to the Fair!

• Secondary First Aid Station

This new station will be located on the east side of campus in the Fonner Park Race Office Building. Stop in if you have any needs.

• Refillable Water Fountains

You will now be able to refill your own personal water bottle at one of our refilling stations throughout campus.

• Fair-Tastic Friday!

On September 1st the State Fair will be providing a sensory-friendly day so everyone can feel included in the fair fun.

• Ninja Nation Course

Show off your ninja skills on our outdoor obstacle course located in The Grand District

• Llama Yoga

On August 25th at 7pm in the Five Points Bank Arena you can give yourself a quality workout, plus hang out with a group of llamas. There is a $50 charge that includes gate admission and a commemorative yoga mat. Space is limited.
