Committee & Staff Reports

4-H Report by Kathleen Lodl

- The 4-H Dog Show was held at a new location – the Thompson Arena. Families appreciated the new venue, which worked well for the event.

1868 Foundation Report – Terry Galloway for Lindsey Koepke

- The Great Steak Debate was a success this year drawing 400 attendees – one of the largest group of attendees yet – and bringing in $120k.
- The Foundation partnered with the Casino this year. If you donated $10 and got $10 on a player's card, the 1868 Foundation received a portion of the funds. The Foundation received $3,800.
- The VIP Reception on Sunday brought new members and life sponsors. Some attendees also increased their commitment levels, making the event a success.
- Events overall during the Fair went well. Additional food from the events was taken to seasonal departments across grounds working overtime and into the night.
- The America 250 statue installed outside the 1868 gift shop was unique between the celebration and its permanent fixture on Fonner Park's campus. The fundraising came up a little short, but the endeavor was a joy.

- This year looks like the best year yet and was certainly a lot of fun.
- Boyd Strobe thanked Terry and the rest of the 1868 Foundation for their support.

Executive Director Report by Jaime Parr

- Some 2026 State Fair numbers were shared, pending finalization.
 - Carnival sales were significantly higher in 2026 than last year.
 - Fair attendance during the week was down compared to years prior, but the hot weather was attributed to that decrease.
 - The beverage department saw record sales this year, particularly on the weekends.
- Appreciation was shown toward the State Fair Board for all their participation this year.
- The Aksarben Stock Show is coming up September 24 through September 27.
- The Board was requested to consider feedback after this State Fair season. Successes, opportunities, and ideas will be discussed at the October board meeting.
- The November board meeting will focus on goal setting. Thanks to Cindy Johnson for her help in setting that up.
- Boyd Strobe shared his appreciation for the board and all their help.
- Lanna Hubbard expressed joy with fellow board members and how much they've accomplished as a group.
